UCLA'S NCAA TITLE TRADITION

Although the UCLA Bruins did not add any NCAA team championships to their already impressive total, they once again demonstrated the overall strength of the athletic program by placing no less than six different sports among the nation's top six in 1979-80.

The Bruins started the year by placing second in the NCAA water polo tournament, the first of four second-place finishes by UCLA in 1979-80. In late March, the basketball team reached the NCAA championship game and finished second in the entire nation. Less than one week later, the Bruin swimmers finished fourth in their NCAA championship, their highest finish ever.

This past Spring, the UCLA track and volleyball teams finished second in the nation in their respective sports while the gymnastic squad finished an outstanding sixth.

In addition, the cross country team, making its first appearance in an NCAA meet, finished 15th, as did the UCLA wrestling squad. The Bruin tennis and golf teams also competed in NCAA tournaments this year, meaning a total of 10 different UCLA programs participated in NCAA championships in the past year.

Individually, the Bruins won seven NCAA titles. Swimmer Brian Goodell won three, giving him a total of nine in his great career, and fellow swimmer Bill Barrett won two. Track star Greg Foster won one title, giving him three in his career, as did track decathlete Mark Anderson. In addition, gymnast Peter Vidmar finished second in the NCAA all-around.

As a school, the Bruins own 38 NCAA team championships, the second highest total in the nation. They won a total of 19 between the years 1970-71 and 1979-80, the highest total in the country.

The Bruins own 13 titles in tennis, (five in the last 11 years) the most of any school, one ahead of USC. UCLA's first NCAA title was in tennis in 1950 and the school has won the title 12 times since that year (1952-53-54-56-60-61-65-70-71-75-76-79).

UCLA owns 10 titles in basketball, all in the last 17 years (1964-65-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-75). That total is twice as many as any other school (Kentucky is second with five) and last March, the Bruins reached the title game for the 11th time in 17 years. In addition, the Bruins have won the conference title in 13 of the last 14 years.

The Bruins have also dominated the sport of volleyball. Since its inception as an NCAA sport in 1970, the Bruins have won the title seven times (1970-71-72-74-75-76-79) and reached the title game two other times (1978-80). The Bruins also own five NCAA outdoor track and field titles (1956-66-71-72-73), finishing second four times in the last seven years, and three titles (1969-71-72) and three seconds in the 11-year history of the water polo championships.

THE 1980 BRUINS

RETURNING VETERANS — 43 returning lettermen from the 1979 team that went 5-6-0 and had some close losses as well as close wins against the toughest schedule in the country. Added to these veterans are four 1978 returnees, Center Dave Otey, who started 4 games, outside linebackers Glenn Windom and Brad Plemmons, who started in 9 and 3 games respectively, and right Cornerback Jimmy Turner. Otey sat out a redshirt season in '79 while the other three are coming off knee surgery. Returnees include: Offense — 2 split ends, 3 zoom-tight ends, 4 tackles, 3 guards, 3 centers, 2 quarterbacks, 2 fullbacks, 2 tailbacks and 3 flankerbacks. Defense — 3 tackles, 3 inside linebackers, 3 nose guards, 6 outside linebackers, 3 cornerbacks and 3 safetymen, plus 1 place kicker and 1 punter. Of the returnees, the following started 1979 games: Offense — Gregg Christiansen, lt, 11; Luis Sharpe, rt, 11; Tim Wrightman, te, 11; Larry Lee, lg, 11; Willie Curran, fl, 11; Freeman McNeil, tb, 9; Toa Saipale, fb, 8; Jojo Townsell, se, 7; Michael Brant, se, 4; John Tautolo, rg, 4; Bernard Quarles, qb, 2; Tom Ramsey, qb, 2; Glenn Cannon, tb, 1. Defense — Arthur Akers, ilb, 11; Scott Stauch, olb, 11; Kenny Easley, fs, 11; Larry Hall, olb, 8; Lupe Sanchez, rc, 8; Mark Ferguson, ng, 7; Joe Gary, rt, 7; Avon Riley, ilb, 5; Tom Sullivan, lc, 5; Karl Morgan, ng, 4; Martin Moss, rt, 4; Chris Elias, olb, 2; Brad Plemmons, olb, 1. Most position changes that developed in the Spring were side-to-side switches or moves to similar assignments, but big Irv Eatman, who showed a lot of promise at offensive tackle and tight end in '79, goes into the season as the leading candidate at defensive right tackle. Also Blanchard Montgomery, who saw enough action to letter as a running back, could be a big contributor as an inside linebacker. The 1980 UCLA team starts out with one of the best 1-2 punches in the country in two-time consensus All-American free safety Kenny Easley, an all-purpose performer who also doubles as a punt and kickoff return specialist and a punt coverage speedster, and Tailback Freeman McNeil, the nation's third leading ground-gainer last year with 139.6 yards per game in setting a new Bruin one-year rushing total of 1,396 yards. Both are bona fide Heisman Trophy candidates as outstanding all-round performers. Other honorees include right Tackle Luis Sharpe, All-Pac-10 second team; left Guard Larry Lee, All-Pac-10 honorable mention; and tight end Tim Wrightman, All-Coast honorable mention.

LOSSES — 20 lettermen, including: Offense — 1 split end, 1 center, 2 guards, 1 quarterback, 1 fullback and 2 tailbacks. Defense — 1 tackle, 4 inside linebackers, 1 nose guard, 2 cornerbacks, 3 safetymen. Starters included: Offense — Brent Boyd, c, 11; Jim Main, rg, 7; Rick Bashore, qb, 7; Dan Lei, fb, 3; Anthony Edgar, tb, 1. Defense — Mark Tuinei, lt, 11; Brian Baggott, rc, 3, and ss, 8; Billy Don Jackson, ilb, 6; Phil Hubbard, lc, 6; Dave Gomer, ss, 2; John Gibbs, ss, 1. In addition, losses include that of place kicker Peter Boermeester, who set UCLA records for most field goals in a season (15) and a career (31) as well as most consecutive extra points (59), winding up the 1979 season as the Bruins' top scorer with 69 points. Honor winners included Center Brent Boyd, second team All-Coast. Bashore, who started 28 games during his Bruin career, wound up with a grand total of 201 completions out of 408 attempts for 2,840 yards, 20 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. In rushing he carried 312 times for 592 yards, 1.9 average and 17 TDs.

OFFENSE — UCLA is now a full-fledged I-Formation team with pass-oriented I-type quarterbacks and the most productive rushing tailback in Bruin history in Senior Freeman McNeil to make the offense go. The Bruins also are now a 12-position offensive team with interchangeable tight ends and "zoom" (man in motion) blocker-receivers. Coach Terry Donahue says, "We hired Homer Smith as our offensive coordinator to rejuvenate the offense; I want it wide open—diversified and productive."

PASSING GAME — While Bruin passing showed something of an upturn last season, consistency was not a hallmark of that UCLA team. The fact that Bashore started seven games and Freshmen Bernard Quarles and Tom Ramsey two each is an indicator of the problems Coach Donahue faced. Although the 1980 quarterback corps will consist of four sophomores and a freshman, the throwing aspect of the game appeared to improve during Spring Practice, as well as the other mental and mechanical parts that go into quarterbacking. Big JAY SCHROEDER, 6-3, 190, showed marked maturity and improvement that projected him to the fore in the quarterback race. However, BERNARD QUARLES, 6-1½, 203, and TOM RAMSEY, 6-1, 188, with considerably more than Schroeder's one-game experience, will definitely prevent it from becoming a one-horse race. Quarles and Ramsey both took their turns at quarterbacking, winning and losing games with virtually the same aerial statistics—Quarles' 15 for 32 passes for 186 yards and one touchdown and Ramsey's 16 for 37 for 273 and four TD's. All have excellent passing arms and good touch with Schroeder and Quarles probably possessing slightly more range. All are good scramblers with Quarles possibly being the strongest in the running department. RICK NEUHEISEL, 6-1½, 183, also showed considerable improvement and could work himself into a backup position. It's in the receiving department where UCLA shows tremendous talent and depth. Junior tight End TIM WRIGHTMAN, 6-3, 228, figures to be the Bruins' starter here for the next two years. In 1979, his first year as a starter, he led the team with 22 receptions for 321 yards and two touchdowns. An excellent blocker, he is one of the top Bruin candidates for honors in '80. Competing with Wrightman for playing time will be Senior JAMES FORGE, 6-3, 222. In its first year as a full-time offensive weapon, the "zoom" or man-in-motion position figures to be manned by Senior RONNIE DeBOSE, 6-5½, 222, who has the size and speed to make a big contribution, and Sophomore PAUL BERGMANN,

6-2½, 203. At the wide receiving spots, quality, speed and depth are impressive. Flankerbacks WILLIE CURRAN, 5-11, 173, and JOJO TOWNSELL, 5-9½, 175, both caught 20 passes last season, Willie for 287 yards and three touchdowns and Townsell for 440 yards and six scores, all in the final four games. Split End MICHAEL BRANT, one of the best athletes on the squad, returns from a broken leg last year when he caught six passes for 120 yards and one TD before the injury. This 5-10½, 181-pounder will be pressed by talented CORMAC CARNEY, 6-1, 185, a transfer from the Air Force Academy where, in 1978, he set NCAA freshman records for most receptions (57), most receiving yards (870), most touchdown receptions (8) and most all-purpose yards (1735). Other top candidates include RICKY COFFMAN, 6-0, 190, a junior, and speedy DOKIE WILLIAMS, 5-11, 171, who caught four for 81 yards and a touchdown last year, then completed as a long and triple jumper on the track team during the Spring. Finally, don't eliminate the talents of Tailback Freeman McNeil, who has caught 22 passes for 182 yards and one TD the last two seasons.

RUNNING GAME — The Bruins have a definite Heisman Trophy candidate in Senior FREEMAN McNEIL, 5-11, 205, the nation's third-leading rusher in 1979. He averaged 139.6 yards a game in 10 contests to rank behind only USC's Charles White and South Carolina's George Rogers in the entire country. He also set a one-season UCLA rushing record with 1,396 net yards while running for 100 or more yards on eight occasions, including highs of 197 against Stanford and 192 versus California. He led the team in total offense (139.6 yards per game), tied for most touchdowns (6), was second to Boermeester in points (38) and fourth in receptions (15). He ranked fifth nationally in all-purpose running (153.6 per game) while earning third team All-America honors. Candidates to supply relief include Senior GLENN CANNON, 5-10, 184, who started the Wisconsin game before injuring a knee and missing the rest of the season; ex-fullback DARRYL GREEN, 6-0, 196, and junior college Transfer TERRY MOREHEAD, 6-2, 195, who scored 10 TDs at Santa Rosa JC last year and made a good impression in Spring Practice. TOA SAIPALE, the 6-2, 216-pound junior who started eight games last Fall, is the front runner for the starting fullback job. An excellent blocker who was greatly instrumental in McNeil's success, he must improve his 3.9-yard average (279 total) to help improve the Bruin offense. Also in the hunt are JAIRO PENARANDA, 6-0, 202 senior, Sophomore FRANK BRUNO, 6-0, 211, and ex-tailback CHESTER GOYNES, a 5-10½, 193 soph.

OFFENSIVE LINE — The nucleus of the line is very good, even though spotted with some inexperience in depth. Senior LARRY LEE, 6-2½, 255, returns for his third season as starting left guard and owns the most experience among the linemen. His running mate on the other side of the line figures to be Senior JOHN TAUTOLO, 6-3, 252, who filled in very well when Starter Jim Main was injured last year. Going into Fall drills sophomore Letterman MIKE JOLLY, 6-5, 240, and soph non-letterman DONNIE MAHLSTEDT, 6-6, 235, figure as top reserves. Both starting tackles return, GREGG CHRISTIANSEN, 6-5, 252, and LUIS SHARPE, 6-6, 255 junior, both of whom started all 11 games of 1979. Both are steady, fine performers. Senior CURT MOHL, 6-5, 257, started two years ago before injuring a knee and last year battled Christiansen for playing time. Others who figure here are junior Letterman MIKE MASON, 6-7, 256, and Sophs STEVE GEMZA, 6-8, 246, and STEVE JONES, 6-6½, 246. To complete a solid front wall Junior DAVE OTEY, 6-3, 255, returns after redshirting last Fall. He started the last four games of the season in '78 after Scott Reid, the regular center, was injured. Junior DAN DUFOUR, 6-4, 262, shared time with Starter Brent Boyd last year and will make a strong contribution. Both Otey and Dufour have excellent talent for snapping for place kicks and punts. Senior VIC MAYER, 6-3½, 249, gives UCLA added depth and experience.

DEFENSE — Last year the Bruins greatly missed several "big play" performers, thus some of the younger players should be ready to display what thy learned from a tough experience. Among the down linemen, Junior JOE GARY, 6-5½, 254, returns talent to left tackle while the experiment of moving former offensive tackle and tight End IRV EATMAN, 6-7, 253, to right tackle appears to have paid off in the Spring. With the switch of sophomore Letterman Mike Jolly to offense, Freshman CHRIS YELICH, 6-4, 238, moves in behind Gary along with classmate KENNY PAGE, 6-4, 225. Behind Eatman is sophomore Letterman MIKE BARBEE, 6-3½, 240, followed by Junior RANDY DICKERSON, 6-5, 233, who sat out last year with an injury. Sophomores KARL MORGAN, 6-2, 241, and MARK FERGUSON, 6-2½, 224, shared the nose guard position most of the season with 31 and 27 tackles respectively. The move of junior Letterman MARTIN MOSS, 6-4, 236, from tackle to this position really solidifies the nose guard spot. At inside linebacker, UCLA has 11-game senior Starter ARTHUR AKERS, 6-3, 223, and five-game Starter AVON RILEY, 6-3, 213, returning; but behind them is a lot of inexperience. BLANCHARD MONTGOMERY, 6-3, 226, was a running back last season, and REX GRAY, 6-3½, 194, who missed Spring Practice because of surgery, was an outside linebacker. The key to the outside linebacking spots is whether two "big play" people can come back successfully from knee surgery. Junior BRAD PLEMMONS, 6-4, 198, was injured in the third game of '79 and missed the rest of the season while GLENN WINDOM, 6-3, 222, missed Spring Drills (and all but one '79 contest) along with Plemmons because of an injury the previous season. Meanwhile, one-year Letterman LARRY HALL, 6-1½, 204, and 11-game Starter SCOTT STAUCH, 6-1, 204, are ticketed as starters with CHRIS

ELIAS, 6-2½, 215; IKE GORDON, 6-5, 225; and non-letterman DOUG WEST, 6-4, 214, also in the race. The secondary will be built around senior two-time All-American free Safety KENNY EASLEY, 6-3, 206, who should become only the second three-time consensus All-American choice in UCLA and Pac-10 Conference history. He's a sure Heisman Trophy candidate if ever a defensive performer is to be so honored. He holds a school record of 17 interceptions and made 78 tackles last season. Sophomore TOM SULLIVAN, 6-0, 182, who started five games at cornerback, is Easley's running mate at strong safety; and they are backed up by non-lettermen LYNDON CRAWFORD, 6-1, 195, and LARRY THOMAS, 5-10, 183. Left Cornerback LUPE SANCHEZ, 5-10, 183, who started eight games in '79, returns, as does JIMMY TURNER, 6-1, 186, another "big play" man who comes off injury in the Spring of 1979. Their backups, as of now, are Letterman MIKE DURDEN, 6-2, 182, and junior college Transfer WALTER LANG, 6-0, 171. Needless to say, with so many inexperienced players throughout the defense, some come-through performances will be a must in 1980.

KICKING GAME — After the quality consistency of Peter Boermeester in field goal and PAT kicking, the Bruins have to make this one of their prime targets. Returning is junior Letterman NORM JOHNSON, 6-2½, 192, who is possessed of tremendous talent. For two seasons he has consistently kicked off into and through the end zone, thus preventing many opposing returns. Now he and DOUG REEVES, 5-11, 147, must display consistency in the place-kicking department to get the Bruins on the scoreboard in this manner. Senior MATT MCFARLAND, 6-2, 220, returns off a 36.2 average last season, and a few notches higher would be helpful. The Bruins have not had a 40-yard plus average since 1976 when Frank Corral averaged 44.1 and the team 42.5.

FALL ENROLLEES — Once more the Bruins came up with a top crop of high school seniors to enroll in the Fall. At this time it is impossible to predict the impact of freshmen on the depth chart, but several have the ability to come in and make a good contribution as did Karl Morgan, Lupe Sanchez, Tom Ramsey, and Irv Eatman, most notably. Of the 14, half earned some first team All-America honors. They include STEVE BONO, qb, from Norristown, PA; RON BUTLER, ilb, Greenville, NC; FRANK CEPHOUS, rb, Newark, DE; GENE MEWBORN, ilb, Lexington, MA; TERRY MOORE, s, St. Louis, MO; KEVIN NELSON, rb, Los Angeles, MIKE YOUNG, wr, Visalia, CA. The following won various state, county, city and league honors: KEVIN BUENAFE, p, Tulare, CA; KEVIN CRONIN, ol; La Crescenta, CA; HARPER HOWELL, te/olb, Boulder, CO; LEE KNOWLES, ilb, Huntington Beach, CA; MARK MANNON, ol, Santa Barbara, CA; DON ROGERS, db, Sacramento, CA; STEVE WILLIAMS, ol, Yorba Linda,

CA. The two Fall junior college enrollees are: DAN LAUTER, db, All-American JC from Hacienda Heights, CA; and BLAKE WINGLE, ol, Camarillo, CA.

THE GENERAL OUTLOOK — Coach Terry Donahue says, "Three items are of vital importance to this team. One, the physical health of the team, particularly of the defensive unit and of certain individuals like a Freeman McNeil, who has to enjoy the same success he enjoyed a year ago as one of the top running backs in the country. Next in importance is the development of a quarterback. We have good receivers and should be able to do more things offensively if the quarterback position can handle these things. Finally, I believe the emergence of a good running fullback would round out what could be a good, exciting team. Defensively, our secondary is young but improved and we do have a super player in Kenny Easley. We also have good team speed on defense. But probably more on defense than offense, there is a lack of quality depth. This is why I point up the critical nature of our team's health during the season."

Travel and other arrangements for the U. S. media for this game (The Mirage Bowl) shall be arranged directly between the media and Tele-Planning International, Inc., in consultation with Oregon State and UCLA Athletic Departments.

RADIO BOOTHS — In the Southern California area, Radio Station KMPC (UCLA's official station) and a special UCLA sports network broadcast each game exclusively. Requests from stations outside this area should be addressed to Vic Kelley at the above address. KTLA (Channel 5) is UCLA's official television station, telecasting all Bruin home and road games for delayed showing. Requests for TV rights should be addressed to UCLA Athletic Director Robert A. Fischer.

WIRE FACILITIES — Those wishing to send stories from the media box should contact Sports Comm or Amfax (both companies provide telecopier and CRT service). Visiting press needing phones should contact Vic Kelley at above address.

PHOTOGRAPHY — Camera ribbons entitle photographers to shoot pictures from the sidelines, also media box. Restraining lines at 35-yard lines allow working only from there to goal line on the field. ONLY PHOTOGRAPHERS WORKING WITH CAMERAS AND WEARING PROPER CREDENTIALS ARE ALLOWED AT SIDELINES.

UCLA ON RADIO, TV

Once again in 1980, all UCLA football games will be broadcast on radio station KMPC (710 AM) in Los Angeles and the Bruin network, with Fred Hessler and Steve Shannon calling the action. This will be Hessler's 21st consecutive season as the play-by-play announcer. In addition, the games will be telecast on delayed basis by KTLA channel 5, at 11:00 p.m. Saturday nights.

TERRY DONAHUE

(UCLA '67)

Head Football Coach

It has been four short years since Terry Donahue assumed the role of head football coach at UCLA. During that span of time, he has accomplished many feats which rank him among the school's all-time greats.

Donahue has already recorded 29 victories as the Bruin head coach. William Spaulding, who holds the UCLA record for career victories, won just 20 games in his first four years. The legendary Henry "Red" Sanders, who holds the school record for career winning percentage, won just 25 games over that span of time. Tommy Prothro, regarded as an offensive genius, comes closest with 27. However, Donahue tops the list.

In four seasons, the personable Donahue has fashioned a record of 29-15-2 for a winning percentage of .652. That mark ranks him fourth in career percentage behind Sanders (.773), Dick Vermeil (.717 in two years) and Prothro (.686). Donahue, of course, acquired much of his coaching philosophy by playing for Prothro at UCLA and serving as an assistant coach during Vermeil's tenure in Westwood.

In addition, he is the only Bruin head coach ever to win a game in the state of Tennessee, having defeated the University of Tennessee, 13-0, at Knoxville in 1978. Also, by defeating the University of Washington in 1976-77-78, he became the first Bruin coach since Sanders to beat the Huskies three straight seasons. The victory at Seattle in 1976 was UCLA's first on Washington's home field since the 1958 season.

Donahue has also led his team's to two post-season bowl appearances—the Liberty Bowl in 1976 and the Fiesta Bowl in 1978. No other man in UCLA history has coached his team to more post-season appearances than Donahue. In addition, he has also coached in all-star games, having served as an assistant at the 1979 hula Bowl and the 1980 East-West Shrine Game, and will be head coach of the West squad at the 1981 Shrine Game at Stanford.

Donahue, whose coaching career began with a memorable 28-10 upset of Arizona State in the 1976 season-opener, has also done an outstanding job in conference play. In three of his four seasons as head coach, the Bruins have entered the regular-season finale with a chance to earn a berth in the Rose Bowl, an amazing accomplishment in an era of competitive equality. His record in the Pacific-10 is 20-9, good for a .690 winning percentage.

A head coach has to do more than guide the fortunes of his team on the field and Donahue has shown the same outstanding abilities to handle the other facets of the job.

One of those other areas is recruiting. In his four full recruiting years, Donahue has signed no less than 28 first team high school All-Americans, not counting three who signed professional baseball contracts and did not attend UCLA. In addition, his 1977 recruiting class, which included standouts such as Kenny Easley, Freeman McNeil, Larry Lee and Arthur Akers, was judged to be the nation's finest.

Donahue, who is adjusting his philosophy greatly as the Bruin head coach, has an offensive coordinator (Homer Smith) on his staff for the first time in his career. He feels the step is a significant one for him because it represents a major delegation of responsibility, which he feels was necessary because of other commitments that are incumbent with the head coaching job. In the past, he has tried to be involved in everything but has learned it is next to impossible at a major university like UCLA.

Only the third former Bruin player to become head coach at his alma mater (Bert LaBrucherie and George Dickerson were the others), Donahue took over in February, 1976, after Vermeil was appointed head coach of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. His first season was a great one as he led the Bruins to a 9-2-1 mark and a Liberty Bowl berth and became the only Bruin coach ever to win nine games in his rookie year. UCLA played its first 10 games without a loss (9-0-1), rose to number two in both wire service polls and finished the year ranked second nationally in scoring and rushing offense and fourth in total offense.

In 1977, despite numerous injuries to key personnel, the Bruins finished the year with a 7-4 record and just missed earning a spot in the Rose Bowl, despite a 2-3 start. Only a field goal with two seconds remaining in the season finale kept them from playing in Pasadena.

In 1978, the Bruins had another fine year, earning a Fiesta Bowl bid and fashioning an 8-3-1 record. Highlights included a season-opening victory over defending Rose Bowl champion Washington, a school-record 10 interceptions against California and a No. 12 ranking on the final UPI poll.

Last season the Bruins faced one of the toughest schedules in school history and suffered numerous crippling injuries as a result. Three losses by a total of 10 points midway through the season dropped the Bruins from the championship picture but they still rallied to win three of their final five games. Highlights of the year included a 31-21 victory over Purdue, a 28-27 come-from-behind win over California and a school rushing record for tailback Freeman McNeil.

Some people were surprised when the young assistant coach (Donahue was 31 at the time) was selected by former Bruin athletic director J.D. Morgan but Morgan never doubted Donahue could handle the job. He named Donahue as UCLA's 13th head coach three days after Vermeil's departure for the Eagles.

Donahue first became associated with UCLA in the mid-1960's, when he played for Tommy Prothro's first two UCLA squads (1965-66). From his defensive tackle position he helped lead the Bruins to their memorable 14-12 upset win over Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

He started 21 straight games during 1965 and 1966 while the Bruins compiled records of 8-2-1 and 9-1 during those two years. Following graduation, Terry became one of the country's youngest major college assistants when, at the age of 23, he joined Pepper Rodgers' staff at the University of Kansas. At KU the young coach was in charge of the defensive line.

He stayed with Rodgers for four years at Kansas and then made the move back to his alma mater with Rodgers for the 1971 football season.

At UCLA, Donahue switched to the offensive line. He served in this capacity for three years under Rodgers (1971–73) and two years under Vermeil (1974–75). Among the Bruins Donahue has coached as either head man or assistant are center-guard Randy Cross, quarterback Jeff Dankworth and safeties Kenny Easley and Oscar Edwards—all first-team All-America players—and line-backer Jerry Robinson, the only three-time consensus All-America in UCLA history.

Terry is also the only man ever to play and coach in a Rose Bowl as a Bruin, having started in the 1966 game and coached in the 1976 contest. He would like to become the first man ever to participate as a player, assistant and head coach while a Bruin, hopefully this season.

Born in Los Angeles on June 24, 1944, Terrence Michael Donahue began his athletic career at Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks where he starred as a linebacker. After playing freshman ball at San Jose State, Donahue returned to the San Fernando Valley where he spent one year at Los Angeles Valley College but did not play football.

He then came to UCLA in 1964 as a "walk-on" football player. He didn't see action in his first season as a Bruin offensive lineman but with his move to the defensive line early in 1965, he earned a starting spot and held it for two years. At 6-0, 195 pounds he lacked size but more than made up for it with desire and hard work.

Donahue is married to the former Andrea Sogas, whom he met and married while coaching at Kansas. They are the proud parents of three daughters, Nicole Denise, 8, Michele Lynn, 4, and Jennifer Erin, 1. The Donahue family currently resides in Westlake Village.

UCLA'S 22ND YEAR IN PAC-10

UCLA has been a member of the Pacific-10 Conference since it was organized July 1, 1959, and was originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The other founding members were California, Stanford, USC and Washington. Washington State became a member July 1, 1962. Oregon and Oregon State became members July 1, 1964 and the league was officially named the Pacific-8. On July 1, 1978, Arizona and Arizona State joined the conference and the league officially became the Pacific-10. Here is UCLA's grid record against traditional Pac-10 rivals since 1959:

(In Alphabetical Order)
JIM COLLETTO
(UCLA '67)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Jim Colletto, one of UCLA's finest all-around athletes of the 1960s, has rejoined his alma mater as a member of the football coaching staff. He will be coaching the offensive tackles and tight ends this season.

Colletto, a football and baseball star during his undergraduate days as a Bruin, is actually in his second term as an assistant coach, having served under Tommy Prothro for two seasons following his graduation in 1967. An extremely versatile performer, Colletto played fullback and linebacker as a sophomore, fullback and defensive end as a junior and defensive end as a senior. He climaxed his football career by serving as captain in 1965 and leading the Bruins to a big upset victory over Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

The team's leading rusher in 1963, Colletto was also a three-year letterman in baseball, serving as captain in 1965 and 1967 and earning All-League honors in the former year. He still ranks in UCLA's career Top Ten for at-bats, hits, doubles and runs batted in.

Following his graduation in 1967, Colletto served his alma mater for two years. In 1967 he was the head frosh coach and in 1968 he handled the scout team while also being responsible for team fundamentals.

In 1969, he became an assistant coach at Brown University. Colletto spent the next two years (1970–71) at Xavier of Ohio and then moved to the University of Pacific for three years (1972–74), coaching the offensive line in every instance.

Following the 1974 season, Colletto was appointed as head coach at Cal State Fullerton and led the Titans for five seasons (1975–79). While at Fullerton he helped develop All-America running back Obie Graves.

A native of San Francisco, Colletto attended Monterey High School and earned a total of 10 letters in football (four), baseball (four) and basketball (two). He was a football prep All-America in 1962 and earned All-Conference honors three times in baseball.

Colletto, who will be 36 on Oct. 2, is married to the former Suzanne Gratiot, who spent two years as a UCLA song girl, and they have three children: Dawn, 10; Dan, 8; and Patrick, 1.

TOM HAYES

(Iowa '71)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Tom Hayes is one of two former defensive coordinators joining the UCLA coaching staff this season. Hayes will be coaching the Bruin defensive backs in 1980.

Hayes comes to UCLA from California State University, Fullerton, where he worked under fellow Bruin assistant Jim Colletto. Last season, his first at Fullerton, the Titans led the Pacific Coast Athletic Association in total defense as well as pass defense after ranking last in 1978.

A native of Keokuk, Iowa, Hayes began his coaching career as secondary coach at Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, after two seasons as a high school assistant. In his one season at Coe (1973), the secondary set a Midwest Conference record with 27 interceptions while the team won the league title.

His next stop was Carroll, Iowa, where he served as head coach at Kuemper High School for three seasons (1974-76) before returning to his alma mater, the University of Iowa. Hayes spent the next two seasons (1977-78) as the Hawkeye secondary coach before becoming defensive coordinator at Cal State Fullerton.

Hayes, 31, attended Atlantic (IA) High School where he was a multi-sport star, earning a total of nine letters in football, basketball and track (three each) as well as All-State honors in both football and basketball. At the University of Iowa, he was a three-year starter in the secondary and signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals at the end of his collegiate career. He graduated in 1971 with a degree in business administration.

Hayes, whose brother-in-law (Ed Podolak) was a running back for the Kansas City Chiefs, is married to the former Cindy Kuiken and they have one son, Andy, 3.

RON HUDSON

(California '69)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Last season, his first as UCLA's running back coach, Ron Hudson demonstrated his outstanding talents to the utmost. Under his guidance, tailback Freeman McNeil set a new single season rushing record with 1,396 yards.

A native of California, Hudson has spent his entire coaching career in the Pacific-10 Conference. Prior to coming to UCLA in December, 1978, Hudson spent two years at the University of Oregon (1977-78) where he was a key member of former UCLA assistant Rich Brooks' staff.

At Oregon, Hudson, 34, had the dual role of running back coach and recruiting coordinator and was responsible for recruiting many of the current Duck stars. He had been named Oregon's quarterback coach just prior to being hired by UCLA.

Born on Feb. 13, 1946 in Oakland, Calif., Hudson was an all-around star at Miramonte High, in Orinda, Calif., lettering in football, basketball, track and tennis. After a stint with the San Diego Marines, for whom he played football, Ron attended Diablo Valley College and lettered in football and basketball. He then transferred to California, where he played rugby and basketball. He is still an active rugby player.

Hudson began his coaching career at his alma mater, spending two years (1969-70) as a graduate assistant at Cal before assuming a similar position at Stanford in 1971. When Stanford assistant Mike White was named head coach at California, Hudson became a member of the staff.

Hudson spent five years at Berkeley, serving as both defensive line and receiver coach. He helped the Bears win a share of the 1975 Pacific-8 title while tutoring receiving standouts Steve Rivera and Wesley Walker. Ron has extensive knowledge of all facets of the passing game from his work at Stanford and Cal. He then joined Brooks' staff at Oregon where he served with another current UCLA assistant, Howard Tippett.

(Gettysburg College '70)
Assistant Varsity Coach
and Defensive Coordinator

Throughout his coaching career, UCLA defensive coordinator Jed Hughes has overcome one challenge after another. Now in his fifth season on the Bruin staff and his fourth as head of the Bruin defense, Hughes has taken on another challenge.

After four years as UCLA's inside linebacker coach, Hughes, 32, has shifted responsibilities and will be coaching the defensive line. This marks the first time since his first year at Michigan (1973) that Hughes will not be coaching linebackers.

His record, both as an assistant coach and a recruiter, speaks for itself. Over the past four years, he has been a major factor in UCLA's success with out-of-state prospects, being primarily responsible for the recruitment of 15 prep All-Americans, including two-time All-America safety Kenny Easley and senior starters Larry Lee and Arthur Akers.

His record as a coach has been just as outstanding. He has tutored All-America linebackers in four of the last five years (Michigan's Calvin O'Neal in 1975 and UCLA's Jerry Robinson in 1976-77-78). During his three seasons as a Michigan assistant, the Wolverines compiled a record of 28-3-3 and since his arrival at UCLA, the Bruins have earned a record of 29-15-2. Thus, in his last seven years as an assistant coach, Hughes' teams have compiled a record of 57-18-5 for a .744 winning percentage.

He started his collegiate career as a coach at Stanford. During his two seasons (1971-72) the Cardinals posted a record of 15-8, including a 13-12 Rose Bowl victory over Michigan in 1972. Then it was on to Michigan for three seasons before arriving at UCLA.

A graduate of Gettysburg (Pa.) College in Biology and Physical Education in 1970, Hughes received his Masters Degree in Education from Stanford and his Ph.D. in Education Administration from Michigan in 1975. While at Gettysburg, he was a starter in both football and basketball. He was born Nov. 14, 1947 in New York City.

Hughes attended Newark (N.J.) Academy prior to going to Gettysburg College, competing in basketball, baseball, and football, captaining the latter two sports and winning All-New Jersey State baseball honors for three years. After graduation, he coached and taught at Biglerville (Pa.) High one year (1970).

The 31-year-old Hughes is married to the former Carol Reaver of Gettysburg, Pa.

DON RILEY

(East Tennessee State '56)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Don Riley, now in his fifth season as UCLA's centers and guards coach, is one of two remaining members of Terry Donahue's first Bruin staff. A steadying influence on the staff, Riley has helped develop a number of fine players, including center Brent Boyd, who was selected on the third round of the NFL draft.

One of the most experienced members of the staff, Riley is in his 15th season as a collegiate coach. Including his nine seasons as a prep head coach, Riley is now coaching for the 24th straight year.

Before coming to UCLA in 1976, Riley spent four years at Oklahoma State (1972–75) where he coached with former Bruin assistant Frank Gansz. Prior to that, he spent six years at Vanderbilt (1966–71).

Following graduation from East Tennessee State University in Johnson City in 1956, he coached first at Lynch, Ky., High, his alma mater, for three years (1956–58); one year (1959) at East Tennessee State; and then six years (1960–65) as head coach and athletic director at Greenville, Tenn., High. Incidentally, in nine years of prep coaching his teams won 70 percent of their games.

A fine athlete, he was an All-Kentucky State quarterback at Lynch High where he also lettered in baseball and basketball. He then went to Lamar (Colo.) Junior College where he starred at quarterback one year. He then transferred to East Tennessee State where he played QB for three years. He also played baseball there one year.

Born in Dungannon, Va., he is married to the former Carol Pierce of Lynch. They have three children, Donna, 19; Karen, 16, and Roger, 13.

HOMER SMITH

(Princeton '54)
Assistant Varsity Coach and Offensive Coordinator

Homer Smith, who helped UCLA set numerous offensive records as assistant head coach in 1972 and 1973, has returned to the Bruin coaching staff for the 1980 season. One of the most brilliant men in his profession, Smith will be serving as offensive coordinator and quarterback coach.

Smith is the first offensive coordinator to serve under Terry Donahue and his record speaks for itself. In all, he owns 12 years of experience as a collegiate head coach as well as nine seasons as an assistant.

During his first term as a Bruin assistant, Smith worked as Pepper Rodgers' offensive coordinator in both 1972 and 1973, as well as assistant head coach during the latter season. He helped Rodgers design and install the Bruins' awesome Wishbone-T offense which accounted for averages of 42.7 points and 470.6 yards total offense in 1973. Both figures are still UCLA records. The Bruins compiled a record of 17-5 during those two seasons.

Following the 1973 season, Smith followed Rodgers to Georgia Tech, but was subsequently named head coach at the U.S. Military Academy. He served as the Army head coach for five years (1974-78) and produced some fine offensive squads. In 1976, Army quarterback Leamon Hall ranked sixth nationally in passing and seventh in total offense.

As an undergraduate at Princeton, Smith starred in football (fullback) and track. He won All-East and All-Ivy League honors on the gridiron as both a junior and a senior. His biggest day was in 1952 when he set a school record by rushing for 273 yards and four touchdowns. He graduated from Princeton in 1954 with honors in economics.

Prior to attending Princeton, Smith prepped at the Lawrenceville School in Lawrence, N.J. Previously, he attended Benson High in Omaha, Neb., where he starred in football, basketball and track.

Smith's collegiate coaching career began in 1958 when he was named head frosh coach at Stanford. After three seasons (1958-60), he became backfield coach at the Air Force Academy, a position he held for four years (1961-64).

He then became a collegiate head coach, taking over at Davidson in 1965. He served in that capacity for five years

HOWARD TIPPETT

(East Tennessee State '58)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Howard Tippett, former defensive coordinator at Mississippi State, is the newest member of the UCLA coaching staff, having arrived just prior to the start of Spring Practice. Tippett will be coaching the outside linebackers.

Tippett brings 17 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and professional level to UCLA. He is the only member of the current staff with professional experience, having coached in the now defunct World Football League.

A native of Tallassee, Alabama, Tippett attended Tallassee High where he earned a total of 12 letters in football, basketball and baseball (four each). East Tennessee State University was the next stop and by the time he graduated in 1958, he had earned four letters in both football and baseball. As a senior in 1957, he captained the team while playing both quarterback and safety.

He began his collegiate coaching career in 1963, coaching the secondary and receivers at Tulane University. After three years (1963–66), he moved to West Virginia for one season, serving as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. In 1967 he became linebacker coach at the University of Houston, a position he held for four seasons (1967–70).

Tippett returned to West Virginia in 1971 and then, in 1972, he moved to Mississippi State where he served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for two seasons (1972–73). He next moved into the professional ranks, spending two seasons (1974–75) as the defensive coordinator of Jacksonville of the WFL.

He then returned to the collegiate ranks as defensive coordinator at Washington State. After one season (1976), he moved down the coast to Oregon, where he served two seasons as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for former UCLA assistant Rich Brooks. Another member of that staff was current Bruin assistant Ron Hudson. Tippett then returned to Mississippi State last season before joining the UCLA staff. During his tenure at Houston, Tippett coached two outstanding players in linebackers Greg Brezina, now of the Atlanta Falcons, and Charlie Hall of the Cleveland Browns. He also helped the Cougars reach the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1969.

Tippett is married to the former Peggy Inman and they have a daughter, Paige, 2.

TED WILLIAMS

(Cal Poly Pomona '65)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Ted Williams, one of the new assistants on the Bruin staff, will be coaching on the collegiate level for the first time in his career. He will be tutoring the inside linebackers this year.

He joined the UCLA staff in March from Los Angeles City College, where he had been named head coach in February. Prior to moving to LACC, he had been head coach at Compton (CA) High School where he built a reputation as one of the most respected prep coaches in the area.

During six seasons as the Tarbabe head coach, Williams compiled a record of 44-21-3. In 1978, his team captured the CIF Coastal Conference championship. Last season, Compton was CIF runner-up to Moore League rival Long Beach Millikan and Williams was honored as Coastal Conference Coach of the Year. In addition, he led his team to a 21-game winning streak (snapped by Millikan) and in his final three years, Compton lost a total of three games.

Prior to becoming head coach at Compton, he worked at the school for six seasons as an assistant coach. His assignments included tackles and tight ends, linebackers and defensive ends, down linemen, receivers, running backs and quarterbacks, giving him first-hand knowledge on coaching many different positions.

In addition to his coaching assignments, Williams also served as Compton athletic director from 1974-77 and taught biology, mathematics and physical education. At various times he was also chairman of the Football Advisory Committee for Academic Counseling, advisor to the Compton Youth Athletic Association Football Program, Compton senior class sponsor and orientation chairman, summer school principal and acting counselor for athletic scholarship recipients. Last summer he also served as head coach in the Kiwanis 605 All-Star football game.

Williams, 36, graduated from Cal Poly Pomona in 1965 with a degree in physical education. While at Pomona, he lettered in basketball and baseball. He also owns a Masters Degree in Physical Education as well as Standard Teaching, Supervision and Administrative Credentials from Cal State University, Los Angeles.

A native of Lyons, TX, Williams is married to the former Gwendolyn Tolliver and they have two children, Darryl, 10, and Terri, 8.

NORM ANDERSEN

(UCLA '76)

Part-Time Assistant Coach

Now in his third season as a member of the Bruin football staff, Norm Andersen will again be in charge of the UCLA receivers in 1980. The job is a natural for Andersen, who still ranks as one of UCLA's all-time receiving greats.

Last season, his first as a part-time assistant after serving as volunteer coach in 1978, Andersen was a major factor in the development of the Bruin receivers. Most notable was Jojo Townsell, who averaged 22.0 yards per reception while catching six touchdown passes.

Andersen, 27, was a three-year starter at UCLA (1973–74–75) and led the team in receptions twice (1973–74). Despite missing a number of games in 1975, he climaxed his career by playing in the 1976 Rose Bowl and was the team's second-leading receiver that year.

For his career, Andersen caught 61 passes for 1,051 yards and a 17.2 average. He still ranks fourth on UCLA's career receiving list. Following his collegiate career, Andersen was drafted by the Chicago Bears on the 11th round of the NFL draft. He was an All-Pacific-8 first team selection in 1974.

JIM ZECHES

(CSU Northridge '73)

Part-Time Assistant Coach

Each year at UCLA, Jim Zeches takes on more responsibilities. This season, his third at UCLA, is no exception. Zeches will be in charge of all films, including the exchange program with other schools, as well as assisting Jed Hughes with the defensive line, specifically the nose guards.

Zeches began his coaching career at his alma mater, St. Bernard High, serving as an assistant in 1973. After three seasons, he moved to Hoover High and worked as an assistant for two years (1976–77) before coming to UCLA in 1978.

A former tight end, Zeches lettered twice at St. Bernard. He then played two seasons at Santa Monica City College before transferring to Cal State University, Northridge, where he lettered twice as a center (1971–72). The following season, he began his coaching career.

Zeches, who will be 30 on Oct. 4, is married to the former Kathy Kent and they live in Glendale.

BRYCE ADKINS

(UCLA '77)

Volunteer Assistant Coach

Bryce Adkins, a former UCLA starting offensive guard, is in his second season as a volunteer coach, having joined the Bruin staff last summer. He will again be assisting the offensive coaches as well as being in charge of fundamentals.

A former two-year letterman at UCLA (1976–77), Adkins was in charge of the offensive scout team last season, a unit on which he participated in 1975 after transferring from Golden West College. In 1976 he was a valuable reserve before moving into a starting role in 1977.

Adkins, 30, attended McKinley High School in Columbus, Ohio, before entering the Navy and serving on the Underwater Demolition Team. After leaving the Navy, he enrolled at Golden West, earning JC All-America honors as a sophomore in 1974 and a scholarship to UCLA.

DONN SWANBOM

(Nebraska '76)

Athletic Department Strength and Conditioning Coach

Donn Swanbom is in his first year as UCLA's Strength and Conditioning coach, a position created this past February. He will be responsible for working with the student-athletes from all of UCLA's men's and women's intercollegiate programs.

Swanbom, 26, comes to UCLA from Southern Methodist University, where he spent the last three years (1977–79) as head strength coach. Prior to that, he spent two seasons (1975–76) as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska, his alma mater. Included among the athletes with whom he has worked are current NFL stars John Dutton, A.J. Duhe, Monte Johnson, Arthur Whittington, Rick Bonness, Tony Davis and Rick Berns.

A native of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, Swanbom attended Gering (NE) High School and earned All-State honors and three letters in football. He also earned two letters in wrestling and was a national tournament qualifier in the freestyle category.

He then lettered twice in football at Fort Hays Kansas State University before transferring to Nebraska. He graduated in 1976 with a degree in Physical Education after beginning his coaching career with the Cornhuskers.

Swanbom also authors books on strength, including his latest, titled, Strength of the UCLA Bruins, for use by UCLA athletes.

BILL REES

(Ohio Wesleyan '76)
Athletic Department Recruiting Coordinator

Bill Rees is in his second year as the athletic department recruiting coordinator and is the first person to hold the job at UCLA. He originally joined the Bruin administration in April of 1979 as recruiting coordinator and strength coach.

A native of Peoria, Illinois, Rees is responsible for the evaluation of prospective student-athletes, both athletically and academically, for all UCLA sports.

Rees, 26, came to UCLA from Northwestern University, where he coached for three seasons (1976–78). In his first year he coached the defensive backs before switching to offensive backs in his final two years.

A multi-sport star at New Trier East High School, Rees earned six letters in football, basketball and baseball (two each). He then attended Ohio Wesleyan University and earned three varsity letters in football. He graduated in 1976 and then began his coaching career at Northwestern.

BRUINS CAN BOAST OF 34 FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Here is UCLA's list of 34 first team All-Americans down through the years, headed by quarterback Gary Beban who also won the coveted 1967 Heisman Trophy awarded annually to the "Outstanding Collegiate Football Player in the United States," and senior linebacker Jerry Robinson, the only three-time consensus All-American in UCLA history and the nation's first since SMU's Doak Walker in 1947-48-49.

The Bruins also can boast of three two-time All-Americans, including senior free safety Kenny Easley, center/linebacker Donn Moomaw in both 1950 and '52 and fullback Bob Davenport in 1954 and '55.

BRUIN 100 YARD RUSHERS

Here is a list of each and every Bruin who has rushed for 100 or more yards in a single game between 1939 and 1979. Wendell Tyler, UCLA's all-time rusher, is the leader in this department with 12 career games of 100 or more yards. Senior Freeman McNeil, UCLA's record-setting tailback, and Tyler hold the one-season record with eight games each.

UCLA'S SINGLE-SEASON 'TOP 10' IN TEN INDIVIDUAL CATEGORIES

Here are UCLA's single-season "Top 10" leaders in ten individual categories, including ball-carrying, passing, total offense, pass receiving, punting, scoring, punt returning, kickoff returning, rushing attempts and pass intercepting.

These records are from 1942 through 1979, although a few categories, as noted, go back a few more years. An 'early' (before the time span listed) accomplishment is listed at the end of the specific category. (1980 players in bold face.)

(UC Riverside '55)
UCLA Chancellor

UCLA's Chancellor Charles E. Young, now 48 and embarking on his second decade as head of the Westwood campus, has been in office longer than any other University of California chancellor except one.

As energetic administrator, he has guided UCLA successfully through difficult periods of student unrest and reduced budgets, providing vigorous leadership in the effort to add to the university's academic distinction through endowed chairs and other outside financial support.

Chancellor Young attended high school and junior college in his native San Bernardino before serving in the U.S. Air Force in the Korean War. Returning from Japan as a sergeant he reentered civilian life and married his childhood sweetheart Sue Daugherty. He and Mrs. Young are the parents of two children, Charles, Jr., now 25, and Elizabeth Susan, 19. To complete his college education, Dr. Young enrolled in the newly-opened U.C. Riverside and became its first student body president in 1955.

For his graduate work, he moved to UCLA, where he earned the M.A. (1957) and the Ph.D. (1960), both in political science.

After a year in Washington D.C., on a Congressional Fellowship, he returned to California in 1959 to join the staff of UC President Clark Kerr.

For about a year he served as staff assistant to the academic team drawing up the Master Plan for Higher Education in California and worked on the University Growth Plan. He also taught political science on the Davis campus of the University in the spring of 1960.

When Dr. Franklin D. Murphy became UCLA chancellor in 1960, he chose as his assistant the young man-on-the-go. In 1963 Dr. Young was appointed a vice chancellor, with responsibilities for administrative, budgetary and student problems.

Five years later, in 1968, Dr. Murphy resigned to become chief executive officer of the Times Mirror Company, and the Regents turned to Dr. Young to lead the campus which he had served with energy and perception.

Chancellor Young's interest in top performance extends beyond purely academic concerns to other fields, including athletics, and he has been quoted as saying, "excellence in the classroom and in the laboratory are compatible with excellence on the playing field and in the gymnasium."

Part of his interest in athletics arises from his own background as a high school football player. He still attends most UCLA football and basketball games and those track meets held in Drake stadium on the UCLA campus, and he can often be seen roaming the sidelines of the field, an enthusiast deeply involved in the fortunes of the team.

ROBERT A. FISCHER

(UCLA '45)
Director of Athletics

Robert A. (Bob) Fischer, a man who has spent his entire adult life as an active member of the UCLA community, is in his first year as the Bruins' director of athletics. He succeeded his longtime friend, J.D. Morgan, on July 1.

Fischer, a native of San Francisco, was appointed to the post in early May after serving as acting director since October 29. During his tenure as acting director, the Bruins enjoyed another successful year, finishing second in the nation in basketball, track, volleyball and water polo, as well as fourth in swimming and sixth in gymnastics.

The University's choice to take over the reins of the department after a nationwide search, Fischer spent 16 years as Morgan's number one assistant. He joined the Bruin athletic department in September, 1964, as assistant director, became associate director in August, 1978, and was appointed acting director last October.

During much of the 11 months prior to his appointment as acting director, Fischer assumed the duties of the director of athletics, handling the day-to-day workings of the department during Mr. Morgan's illness. Thus, although this is his first full year as athletic director, he already has experience in running the department.

A member of the National Athletic Collegiate Directors Association, Fischer has represented UCLA at many of the NACDA conventions, as well as at National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) conventions and Pacific-10 athletic director meetings.

Among his many duties during his tenure as Morgan's top assistant were the overseeing of the operations of the UCLA Promotions and Athletic Ticket Offices, as well as being involved with football and basketball scheduling and serving as department liaison with the Sportsmen of the South, one of UCLA's fine support groups.

A graduate of UCLA, Fischer attended Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco. While serving in the U.S. Navy, Fischer came to UCLA in 1943 to participate in the V-12 program. In 1945, he earned a B.S. in Business Management, Finance, Marketing and Accounting. While at UCLA, he was very involved in student affairs. He was a member of ASUCLA Board of Control, a representative-at-large on the Student Executive Council, chairman of the Cal Club and All-U-Sing, and a member of numerous committees, including Homecoming and Stadium Executive.

Prior to graduating from UCLA, Fischer attended Naval Officer Supply School at Harvard University.

He then returned to UCLA, taking a job in the Business Office, where he served from July, 1946, through September, 1951. For the next five years, he was involved in University affairs while off campus. In September, 1956, Fischer was named executive manager of the Sportsmen of the South. He held that position until September, 1964, when he joined the athletic department as Morgan's assistant.

Fischer, a member of the original Pavilion committee which led to the construction of Pauley Pavilion, is married to the former Liliane Jenkins, also a UCLA graduate. They have four children, all college graduates: Larry, 33; Diane, 31; Michele, 28; and Denise, 25. Larry, Michele and Denise all graduated from UCLA and Diane is a graduate of Cal State University, Northridge.

(Harvard '55)

Faculty Athletic Representative

During his first four years as UCLA's faculty athletic representative, Prof. Douglas S. Hobbs, has handled a number of major assignments with success. He is currently chairman of the Pacific-10 Conference Compliance Committee and was a member of UCLA's Athletic Director Search Committee earlier this year.

In 1978-79 he served on the NCAA Division I Steering Committee, which initiates policy recommendations for action by the association's annual convention, and in 1977-78 Hobbs was president of the Pacific-8 Council.

Working with faculty representatives of the other member schools, he helps to shape matters of athletic policy and to approve legislative action of the Pacific Ten Conference as well as to help determine the eligibility of student athletes.

His duties also include membership on the UCLA Athletic and Recreational Policies Commission, and he is UCLA's representative to two women's organizations, the West Coast Athletic Association (WCAA) and the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW).

An associate professor of political science with a specialty in American Constitutional law, Dr. Hobbs enjoys his work in athletics and is a longtime spectator at UCLA athletic events. He says, "Since joining the UCLA faculty in 1964, I've missed only one home football game." On that occasion, Gary Beban broke his leg during the struggle with Stanford, and Dr. Hobbs is resolved not to court such disasters by his absence. He also rarely misses a basketball game in Pauley Pavilion.

He competed in track and basketball at Great Neck, N.Y., High School and also, as he puts it, "Played without distinction on Harvard's freshman basketball team."

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Dr. Hobbs was educated at Harvard University, receiving his A.B., magna cum laude, in 1955 and his Ph.D. in 1966. He was a Robert Treat Paine Fellow there in 1958–59, a Graduate Fellow in 1959–60 and a Teaching Fellow in Government in 1959–62 and 1963–64. He has taught at UCLA since 1964.

He has won three teaching honors at UCLA, the 1968 and 1975 Pi Sigma Alpha Awards for Distinguished Teaching in Political Science, and the UCLA Alumni Association's Distinguished Teaching Award in 1969.

Professor Hobbs served on active duty as an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1955–58 and in 1962–63. He served as a Navigator on board a destroyer and later as Communications Officer and staff secretary on the Staff of Destroyer Squadron Eight. He left the Naval Reserve as a Lieutenant Commander in 1965.

Dr. Hobbs is married to the former Jane Field, and they live in Brentwood, a residential area a few miles from the Westwood campus.

HISTORY OF UCLA

UCLA, now in its 62nd year as a campus of the University of California, is still the youngest major university in the nation. Its founding date, 1919, is recent by comparison with those of the other nine leaders listed by the educational magazine, Change, which ranged from Harvard (1636) to the University of Chicago (1890).

No doubt much of the explanation for UCLA's remarkable growth and development lies in its location in the country's most vigorous center of population growth: in a sense the story of UCLA and Los Angeles go hand in hand.

From its earliest beginnings as the Los Angeles State Normal School (1881), through its existence as the Southern Branch of the University of California (1919), to the University of California at Los Angeles (1927) and the University of California, Los Angeles (1958), UCLA has responded to the challenges of its dynamic setting.

From a provincial undergraduate institution, it has expanded into a major research university, with the eighth largest graduate enrollment among U.S. state universities.

UCLA's various professional schools, though also relatively young, have reached national prominence. One 1977 survey found the UCLA law school in 10th position, graduate education in 4th, and management in 8th; another in 1979 listed UCLA medicine in 5th place in the U.S.

In addition to building a distinguished faculty, which now includes two Nobelists and 24 members of the National Academy of Sciences, UCLA has developed many unusual educational facilities, including a library of well over 4,000,000 volumes recently ranked 9th in the nation by the Association of Research Libraries. Another important research tool is the new IBM 3033 computer, one of the most advanced in U.S. universities, which processes 700,000 jobs each year.

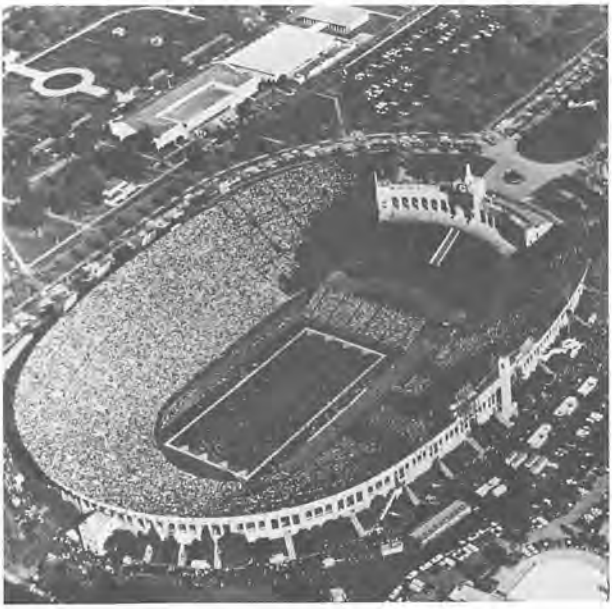
In science, the university has such special facilities as a linear accelerator, a laboratory for research into nuclear fusion which may some day provide unlimited sources of energy, a carbon-dating laboratory which determines the age of ancient objects, and a tissue-typing laboratory which matches donors and recipients of organ transplants all over the world.

No less impressive are the facilities in the arts, which include the extensive ethnic art collection of the Museum of Cultural History and the more than 400 exotic musical instruments of the department of music. Still other unusual collections embrace the more than 60 major examples of contemporary sculpture in the Franklin Murphy Sculpture Garden and the more than 25,000 prints in the Grunwald Center for the Graphic Arts.

It is perhaps not surprising that UCLA's strong faculty and excellent facilities have attracted a large volume of research grants, not only from private sources but from the government. In federal grants for research and development, UCLA ranked 6th in the nation in 1978.

It is also not surprising that with such a wealth of educational opportunity, UCLA's students should have played a prominent role in supplying California's need for sophisticated manpower, thus providing an increasingly influential group of UCLA alumni in the state and elsewhere.

THE BEAUTIFUL HOME OF UCLA's FOOTBALL BRUINS



Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum

- One of the World's Premier Stadiums . . . .
- Site of the 1932 Olympic Games . . . . .
- Capacity = 92,604
- Site of the 1984 Olympic Games

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum may be 57 years old, but it is continuously being improved. In fact, in the past 33 years, some $12 million improvements have been made to maintain the Coliseum's position among the super stadia of the world.

The 92,604 seating capacity includes 74,017 theater-type seats and only 18,587 remaining bench-type seats.

The Coliseum, built in 1923 and enlarged for the Olympic Games in 1932, is best known as the world's greatest football stadium, the home of not one, but two top teams, UCLA and USC.

There are 90 entrances equipped with 74 turnstiles for easy access and exit of the facility. A modern press box sits high atop the south rim of the Coliseum. It has three levels serviced by a private elevator. The seating capacity is 216 on the first and second levels only.

A Coliseum Commission, with Robert D. Selleck currently serving as president, oversees the facility for the State of California, County of Los Angeles and City of Los Angeles. Jim Hardy is the general manager, assisted by Jerry Nielsen.
